IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Nomination of an authorised officer to complete the application form on behalf of the applicant

For the purposes of this application, the 'applicant' must nominate an 'authorised officer' to be responsible for the completion of the application form and for the certification of all information provided.

The authorised officer will be an associate of the applicant and should have capacity to influence the business direction of the applicant. This capacity to influence extends beyond the day to day management and control of the business of the applicant, although it may include this. The authorised officer is typically the chairman of the board of directors, managing director, chief executive officer, public officer or company secretary.

Who is an associate?

The questions contained in this application form assist to identify an applicant's associates. The application must be accompanied by completed Associated Individual or Entity forms for relevant associates identified from completing this form.

For the purposes of section 1.4 of the Act, an "associate" of a gambling industry participant is—

- (a) a person who holds or will hold any relevant financial interest, or is or will be entitled to exercise any relevant power (whether in right of the person or on behalf of any other person) in the gambling business of the gambling industry participant, and by virtue of that interest or power, is able or will be able to exercise a significant influence over or with respect to the management or operation of that business; or
- (b) a person who is or will be an executive officer, whether in right of the person or on behalf of any other person, of the gambling business of the gambling industry participant; or

(c) if the gambling industry participant is a natural person—a person who is a relative of the gambling industry participant.

Associates may include, but are not limited to:

- all current office holders (directors, secretary etc), managers and persons holding other executive positions (e.g. chief operating/executive officer);
- shareholders with 10 per cent or more of ordinary shares (voting and income entitlement shares) and/or preference shares (income entitlement shares only) of the applicant;
- persons or entities entitled to receive from the applicant, either directly or indirectly, any income derived from the business or entitlement to receive any payment as a result of money advanced;
- subsidiaries, related entities or the ultimate holding company of the applicant; and
- any other individual or entity determined by the Commission to be an associate.

Subsequent investigations by the Commission may reveal further associates of the applicant. These individuals or entities will also be required to complete and lodge an appropriate associate form.

Lodgement of associate forms

Associate forms are part of the application for listing on the Roll and must be forwarded to the Commission as part of that application. The Commission is aware of the confidentiality of personal information provided in Associated Individual forms. Accordingly, Associated Individual forms may be provided with an application in a sealed envelope with instruction that it may only be opened after it has been lodged with the Commission. Where an Associated Individual applicant has failed to provide necessary information, the application form will be returned in a sealed envelope (marked 'strictly confidential' and 'to be opened by addressee only') to the authorised officer to organise completion and re-lodgement to the Commission.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Notification of Changes

Before determination of this application

Between the lodgement of this application and its determination by the Commission, any changes to the information provided (including any documents lodged with the application) must be notified by the applicant in writing immediately the change occurs. Failure to notify the Commission of any change may result in a fine of up to 60 penalty units.

False or Misleading Information

It is an offence under the Act to give information that is false or misleading. If you give false or misleading information, your application may be refused and/or you may be prosecuted and fined up to 60 penalty units (go to vgccc.vic.gov.au to confirm the current value of a penalty unit).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Accountant or Auditor's statement

The Accountant or Auditor's statement must be completed and provided with this application.

Holding Company's Accountant or Auditor's statement (if applicable)

An Accountant or Auditor's statement must be completed and provided with this application in respect of the holding company, if applicable.

Summary of financial information

In addition to providing an accountant or auditor's statement, the applicant must provide a summary of financial information for the three most recent completed financial years. The applicant is advised to consult with its accountant or auditor to ensure that the true and correct summary of financial information is provided. The VGCCC may subsequently request audited financial statements be submitted in the event that this summary is found to be incomplete, incorrect or misleading.

The applicant must also ensure the solvency declaration at the end of this section is signed by each Director of the applicant. The solvency declaration requires each Director to declare that they have a reasonable belief that the company will be able to pay its debts as and when they become due and payable.

This solvency declaration will assist the Commission to consider whether the applicant is of sound and stable financial background for the purposes of the Gambling Regulation Act 2003.
